ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Circuit Judge.

We are authorized to announce that Mr. J. P. THURMAN, of Washington, D. C., has been nominated for Circuit Judge in the district embracing the counties of Green, Taylor, Martin, and Wayne, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

It took the Spectator a long time to locate its Republican "Goeblites," but just as the sun was about to fall at Somerset, just at that opportune time, when it was as plain as the noonday sun that Mr. Hunter was doomed to fall before the interference of Federal machine methods, and under the pressure of The News, its editor stepped on deck, announced for Edwards and gave one big whoop for the new-born statesman of Laurel county. Every body knows that its editor is an apostle of righteous methods, that he has fought for pure politics as only a true statesman and brave and courageous editor could. It is true that it took some time for him to discover and locate the perpetrator of frauds, but being in close touch with the course of events, standing as it were, so to speak, with one arm around the wily statesman from Cumberland, and the other over the shoulder of the Sunday-school politician of Laurel, with an acute ear to catch the wireless messages of both machines, he tumbled, tumbled in a hasty march for the log-cabin candidate. His arduous labors to set country above party would lose its golden hue, would blur a spotless record by merely sticking to a Republican nominee without the knowledge of an untainted claim! No sacrifice is too great, no investigation too tedious and no cause too perilous for him when determined to establish justice, to save his party and country and to prosecute fraud! He has fought "Goeblism" harder than any other GREAT editor gone up against "machines" with the courage of a Roman Gladiator, has suffered persecutions, doubtless, for the sake of truth, and defended, with all his ability, the "innocent" when accused of great crimes. He pictured the vote that would follow the election of the State Democratic ticket, and fully and ably proclaimed the calamity that will come to our nation should the Democratic nominees be elected. Self-sacrificing, as pure and righteous as Addix, of Delaware, and as able and spotless as Dick Knott, of the Louisville Post, he has won his spurs in one of the greatest cavalry charges ever made in defense of pure politics, and secured a record that cannot be punctured by all of the artillery of corrupt party regularity. Above all, he hates frauds, loves winners and ably and courageously points the erring politicians to the haven of peace, good-will and victory. In speaking of Hunter, last week, he said: "Let us bury this apostle of fraud, this follower of William Goebel so deep under the avalanche of baloney that no man in our party will ever again undertake to override the will of the majority in Kentucky. Goeblism has crept into our own ranks. Let us cast it out, root and branch." Does that mean that Hunter and his supporters are marked for the political slaughter pen unless they bow to the nominee of the Federal machine? Now, Mr. Editor, it is immaterial to us who rides in the Republican band wagon, who steals a nomination or who buys it in the G. O. P., but you sought in the beginning to place The News in a position that would bring it to the level with your shifting tactics and thus feel that you had company. Our reply was pointed and emphatic, leaving you in your floundering position. In your efforts to get away from the original proposition, consistency, you have sought to precipitate a great debate on national issues between two publications, you standing as the head-light of one of the most renowned journals in our entire country. Surely your challenge was the product of irritation and not of your calm and deliberate moments, for evidently you would have foreseen the upheaval that would likely follow in the political world. With the war in the East and a great conflict in America for political supremacy to engross the minds of the people, we respectfully decline to be a party to a discussion that would further arouse and distract our people. You are warring for pure politics, and we are merely trying to get information. You have stated that you would not support a fraudulent nomination. We want to know how you can determine the honesty of the nominee of the Hunter-Edwards race? You are aware of the fact that the money of Federal office-holders runs the gauntlet on you Hunter people, in this county, excuse us, you are now on the other side of the Taitse river, burning the bridges in your last issue, but if necessary to re-cross its raging waters we believe you are the stout; but you know that the illegal use of money was a factor in securing votes. If the purchasing of votes is right we would like to know, if not, why do you not condemn such debauchery? You made no kick against the illegal use of money, the most potent power in de-bauching the American voter, and the most formidable obstruction against true merit with men of moderate means. If Mr. Edwards' nomination does not have the stamp of the dollar, then how was it secured? If Hunter, as you say, is an apostle of fraud, then what is Edwards? Did you believe that the Edwards crowd treated Mr. M. R. Yarberry right when he went to meet the Committee in London? He stated that he was the victim of threats, that for safety he left that town on first train, and when passing through it that evening was notified not to be seen, for his own safety, and he took passage in a "Jim Crow" car. Did that fore-shadow the righteousness of Edwards' nomination? Again, do you endorse the action of the State Central Committee in its interference with the district committee at Somerset? Had it a right to interfere? What about Bell county's vote? Do you know that fraud was alone committed by the Hunter people in Bell? You denounced the committee that gave Hunter the certificate and then the next morning smoothed it over. Were you right in the denouncing or the smoothing? Tell the whole story The News will debate calf prosperity and sheep activity with you just as soon as you correct the evil trend of Republicanism in this district. We have always admired that open centric spirit that actuated doubting Thomas when he saw the nail prints he exclaimed: "My Lord and my God."

The Elizabethtown News has started out to drive whiffs from its town and the indications are that it will succeed in a noble work. The striking of Mrs. Cary Nation in that town by a law keeper will also make many prohibition votes.

The New York Democratic Convention adjourned at Saratoga last Wednesday afternoon after nominating by unanimous action a State ticket headed by Justice D. Cady Herriek, Albany, for Governor. Justice Herriek was agreed upon in our party with a compromise candidate, and the convention was harmonious throughout. A notable feature of the convention was the disappearance of all open evidences of the factional warfare between Murphy and McCarren and their respective adherents. The convention was large and notably enthusiastic.

Hon. J. M. Richardson, editor of the Glasgow Times, was nominated by a Democratic convention, held at Scottsboro, last week, for Congressman from the Third district. He is one of the best known Democrats in the State, and there is no doubt but he will defeat W. H. Jones, the Republican candidate. The majority in the district is not large, but Richardson will get a sufficiency.

The New York Sun, a paper that is making the fight of its life for Roosevelt, says that Frank W. Higgins, the Republican nominee for Governor of that State, is totally unfit for the position. The Democrats of the Empire State are jubilant, have an excellent candidate for Governor, and are determined to win in November.

Justice D. Cady Herriek, a man of unblemished character, will be the next Governor of New York if reports from that State are to be believed.

Hon. W. J. Bryan will spend a few weeks in the Rocky Mountains for the benefit of his health. He is not seriously ill.

GRADYVILLE.

Rev. Mell and wife and C. O. Moss and wife started for Franklin the first of the week.

S. D. Caldwell and wife of Portland, attended church here last Sunday. J. T. Hamilton and Brad Wardlaw, of Nell, passed through here one day last week with a nice lot of mule colts that they brought in Columbia.

Aunt Sia Patterson, after spending two weeks in Columbia and Bliss, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. H. A. Walker, of Columbia, visited relatives here one day last week. S. Hatcher and son, of Green county, were here Saturday looking after horses.

T. F. Goven made a business trip to Casey county last week.

Geo. T. Flowers, of Columbia, spent Saturday night and Sunday here.

Miss Ella Dohoney, our efficient teacher, spent Saturday night and Sunday with our people.

Mrs. J. B. Yates is improving at this writing.

Mrs. L. Pendleton, of Sulphur Well, visited her son, J. F. Pendleton, last week.

Smith and Nell are on the market for a car load of fat cattle.

J. D. Walker went to Sparksville last week and bought two young mule colts of L. Akin for $147.50.

Rev. Shelley, of Columbia, preached an interesting sermon here Saturday night on baptism.

Mr. Rich Breeding and Miss Nina Breeding, of Breeding, attended quarterly meeting here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Robertson and Mr. Charles Yates were at the bedside of Mrs. Noble Dohoney, of Case Valley, one day last week.

Messadams Hill & Robertson returned from Louisville last week where they bought new millinery.

R. L. Caldwell sold a mule colt last week for $57.50.

Smith and Nell bought a nice bunch of cattle of Delphus Wheeler last week, at $2.60 per cwt.

Our farmers are about through cutting tobacco and are now cutting corn and sowing wheat. Our corn crop is fairly good. A larger crop of wheat than usual, will be sown.

John W. Erwin, who has been living near here for two years, removed back to Metcalfe county last week. Mr. Erwin is one of the best tobacco growers we ever knew. He made about $1,500 worth of the weed, here.

Children's day at Big Creek Sunday was a grand success. A large crowd was present.

The quarterly meeting held here last Saturday and Sunday was largely attended. There was good preaching and plenty to eat.

Sapp & Burris, of Lebanon, arrived in our town last Wednesday with a half carload of ponies, and we are glad to note that there is no better market in the State. The people have found the above named firm to be good, honest, straight men, and they have met with good success—have only a few left. Call and see them at Wilmore Hotel.

MRS. C. R. PAYNE DEAD.

Last Wednesday evening about 6:30 o'clock, after a long illness, the subject of this writing, succumbed to the inevitable and calmly met her God. Mrs. Payne was a native of Cumberland county, and was a sister of Mr. A. A. Huddleston, Commissioner of the State of this district. She was a lady highly respected and had many friends during her stay in Columbia. She leaves a husband and two little girls—twins. Her youngest child was buried about two months ago. This is a sad blow to the husband, who had bright prospects before him, having recently purchased a farm, near town, and was making preparations to live happily and comfortably the remainder of his life. The deceased was a consistent member of the Methodist Church and died in the Christian's faith. The funeral services were held at the mortuary Thursday forenoon, conducted by Rev. E. G. Shelley, assisted by Rev. W. H. C. Sandage, F. E. Lewis, W. C. Clemens and J. P. Scruggs. The interment was in the city cemetery, many friends being present. May the Giver of all that is good comfort the husband and the two motherless children.

Columbia is growing rapidly, and there is but one thing lacking to make it a town of several thousand inhabitants. Any number of desirable building lots are hedged in, and streets should be opened and the lots placed upon the market. All the available lots fronting the four main streets, have long since been taken, and in order for the town to continue its growth, new avenues must be opened. We hope property holders will give this very important matter serious consideration.

Mr. John F. Neat has purchased the stock of goods at Garlin, recently owned by Mr. L. T. Neat, and will continue the business at that point. He has also ordered a fresh supply of goods from the market and being an experienced merchant, there is no doubt but he will do a good business. Mr. Neat has employed Mr. Wallace Hancock, a very efficient young man, to conduct the circuit court clerk's office.

The poles for the long distance line have been placed from Green River bridge to this side of Cave Valley. Some people have gotten the impression that Columbia is to be connected with the Home Company when in reality the poles are for the cable line. The line will be first-class in every particular. Mr. H. N. Miller is the promoter at this end of the line.

The Louisville Conference which convenes at Franklin to-day, includes nine preachers, Elder's district, about 175 pastoral churches and 50,000 church members. About two hundred ministers and 150 laymen will be in attendance. There will also be a large number of ladies. The Conference will be presided over by Bishop A. Coke Smith, of Norfolk, Va.

Circuit court has now been in session eight days and will continue the remainder of this week. A great many misdemeanor cases have been disposed of and several very important issues have been before the court. We understand that the grand jury is experiencing some trouble in getting witnesses before the body, but the work goes diligently on.

Mr. Geo. W. Ewing, a native of Adair county, but who has been living in Kentucky, died, for nearly thirty years, was declared of unsound mind last week. He is 82 years old. When a young man he was an active trader in slaves, and at one time he resided with his family in Columbia.

W. H. Wilson bought for C. F. Dunbar & Co., 18 head of butcher's cattle, from various parties and is slaughtering them at the rate of three per week. They are slaughtered Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and will kill every day in the week if the demand will warrant it.

I have 2 good milk cows and calves, will sell reasonable. J. R. Tritt, Milltown.

In order for Columbia to become a city of several thousand inhabitants, streets must be opened.

THEY ARE GRATEFUL.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sapp, who are so sorely distressed on account of the burning of five of their children, their dwelling and household goods, desire to return their heartfelt thanks to all of those who have aided them in their great trouble.

VALUABLE LOTS FOR SALE.

There lies in the suburbs of Columbia a body of land, fronting the Glasgow road which will be laid off into town lots. The land lays well and a number of handsome building sites can be selected. They will be sold to reliable persons at reasonable figures. For information call on J. E. Murrell at Adair County News office.

LOST.

On the road to Bethlehem church, Russell county, or at church, Sept. 18, a pocket-book containing between $22 and $23. Finder will be liberally rewarded.

Election of officers for Columbia Chapter No. 7, next Friday night.

THE BIGGEST MAN.

You may call him a "rube" or a "hayseed," or a "yap" but the farmer is the biggest man in the country nevertheless. He could buy all the national banks, pay the national debt, purchase both the steel combine and the Standard Oil trust and put Wall street out of business, out of the products of his own toil and still have a billion dollars for pocket money. To sum up a sentence, the farmer by whatever name he may be called, is the most important class in the United States, and he has a right to grow chesty at the showing he makes.—Franklin favorite.

The above should not only be encouraging to our farmers, but it should stimulate them to remain on top. They should combine against the headstrong trusts and ship their tobacco to independent houses. It is our understanding that there are only two houses in Louisville, the principal market, not in the combine. The Pickett and the Home. These houses should be patronized by our tobacco growers.

The meeting of the American Ginseng Growers Association, held at the home of Mr. Sylvester Bennett, last Saturday, was largely attended, and was the best meeting the Association has ever held in this county.

It is said it required two trains to haul the people from Campbellville to the Lebanon circus.

Ed. W. B. Wright has been holding a successful meeting on Casey's Creek.

Rev. W. C. Clemens will preach at Union the first Sunday in October.

MONTPELIER.

Mrs. Mollie Patterson is not as well as usual. Mrs. Julia Williams and Mrs. Patay Epperson are also on the sick list.

A large crowd attended preaching at Pleasant Hill last Sunday. There was dinner on the ground and singing in the afternoon, conducted by Prof. George Blair.

Miss Linnie Bradshaw, of Wayne county, who has been visiting relatives here, returned home Wednesday, accompanied by Mr. Vester Williams.

There was an interesting spelling at Pleasant Hill school-house Wednesday night.

Mrs. Ella Marshall left for Nebraska home Monday.

Miss Sallie Williams is visiting her brother at Eato.

Mrs. Mary Murrah is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Mattie Stone, in Illinois.

Mr. Jas. Dice sold his farm to Mr. Sparks, of Eato, for $1,600.

JOPLA.

Fall farming is being carried on now in high spirits after being favored with such good crops.

Frost has been seen in some places out this way.

Mrs. Fannie Montgomery, who has been sick several weeks is better. Her eye sight which was almost gone, is now sufficient to tell one person from another.

Another one of Adair's oldest citizens passed away on the 22d, Uncle Ezra Powell. He was 85 years old.

Revs. Bell and J. P. Scruggs are conducting a meeting at Zion.

Mrs. Mont Montgomery has been on the sick list with something like pneumonia.

The school teachers are keeping a keen eye now as it is only two weeks' till trustees election.

Miss Minnie, daughter of Dr. Z. G. Taylor, of Hart county, has been visiting relatives and friends here several weeks. Every body was very much impressed with her quiet and unassuming ways. Come again Miss Minnie.

Mrs. Margaret Holladay has returned from quite a pleasant visit to her uncle, Anderson Holladay, of Kansas.

Mr. Fount Selby was here one day last week.

Mr. Sam Stapp passed through here last week with a nice drove of cattle en route to his late purchased farm.

The best meeting ever held at Shiloh closed last Wednesday night with 22 additions and the church greatly revivified. Eld. Leslie Edmon, the pastor, did the preaching. The song service was conducted by R. O. Cabell. Steps were taken to make several repairs on the house which will add very much to the looks and comfort of the house.

WEBB'S ROAD.

Several from this section attended circuit court at Columbia.

AN INFER THEY CAN'T DODGE.

Fully 62,000 voters of the nation have signed the petition demanding election of the United States with Canada. It is estimated that more than 20,000 of these are Republicans, and most of them are business men.

Little wonder that Senator Lodge and his friends are disturbed by the progress made by the reciprocity movement, and that the future is regarded with misgiving. The case can not be dodged forever. The Senate can not do perpetually in vague generalizations. Whether it is the duty of the directors of the United States to the United States, the Canadian citizens are a part of the whole. They have too much pride to humiliate themselves in the matter of reciprocity.

LIFE SENTENCE.

At Lancaster the jury in the case of John Metcalf, charged with the murder of his brother, Ben Metcalf, in April, 1903, returned a verdict of guilty of murder and fixed his punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for life.

Six of the jury were for the death sentence. The case is without precedent in the annals of crime in the history of Garrard county and occasioned widespread interest. The killing resulted from the return of John Metcalf from Missouri to make his home on his father's place, after an absence of years. Ben Metcalf had been living on the farm and resented the brother's return. It was proved that John Metcalf was to be killed at a place called a pistol, and the next morning shot him in the back in the presence of his father, his mother, his wife, and his children.

A dispatch from Danville says early Sunday morning a wild woman was discovered in the knolls. She was taken to town by Sheriff M. D. Wolfe. The information was practically noted and her husband was being sought as though she had been running through the woods. Ben was apparently 40 years old, of a dark complexion, and was wearing a dark suit. The sheriff did not put any question to her as to the circumstances of the case, and that was: "When I was out of the knolls, I saw a man in a dark suit, and I shot him. I don't know anything about it." She was loaded and dressed after being taken to the jail and later in the day she came more talkative and in intervals stated that her husband was David Green, who lives near Portland, Casey county. Her husband has recently come from a party residing in the knolls that a wild man and Ben met, and she repeated her own story.

LITTLE MAMIE.

When the pearly dew was faded,
And the sky in beauty smiled,
Came a whisper like an echo
From a pale and dying child:
Mother, in that golden region
With its pearly gates so mild,
Is there room among the angels
For the spirit of your child?

CHORUS:
Tell me truly, darling mother,
Is there room in heaven for me?
Shall I gain a home of spirit,
And the shining angels see?

Mother, raise me, just a moment,
You forgive me what I say;
You were angry when you told me
I was always in your way.
You were sorry in a moment,
I could see it on your brow,
But you need not mind it, mother,
You can not recall it now.

When my baby sister calls me,
And my voice you hear no more;
When she plays among the roses
By our little cottage door:
Never chide her when you are angry,
Do it kindly and in love,
That you both may dwell with Mamie
In that shining world above.

I was not so wayward, mother,
I was not so very bad,
But thy tender love would nourish
And make Mamie's heart feel glad.
Things I learn for pure affection
In this world of bitter we,
And I sigh for blessed mortals
In that land where I may go.

CHORUS:
Tell me truly, darling mother,
Is there room in heaven for me?
Shall I gain a home of spirit,
And the shining angels see?

When my baby sister calls me,
And my voice you hear no more;
When she plays among the roses
By our little cottage door:
Never chide her when you are angry,
Do it kindly and in love,
That you both may dwell with Mamie
In that shining world above.

CHORUS:
Tell me truly, darling mother,
Is there room in heaven for me?
Shall I gain a home of spirit,
And the shining angels see?
